

Priority A:

Advance research excellence in all its diversity

CIHR will develop and promote a renewed concept of research excellence that values equity, diversity, and inclusion.

CIHR will strengthen support for interdisciplinary and team science that includes knowledge users.

CIHR will mandate that our funded research is findable, accessible, interoperable, and reproducible.

CIHR will promote collaboration and partnerships in all areas of our business, including patient and public engagement and international collaboration.

