

Priority B:

Strengthen Canadian health research capacity

CIHR will address the challenges underlying low success rates in our investigator-initiated research funding stream.

CIHR will remove the systemic barriers to accessing research funding faced by under-represented groups.

CIHR will address gaps in training and support across all career stages.

CIHR will develop our capacity to enable rapid and evidence-informed responses to emerging health threats.

