

Priority E:

Integrate evidence in health decisions

CIHR will further the science of knowledge mobilization in Canada among researchers and knowledge users.

CIHR will prioritize the sharing and implementation of existing knowledge to inform health practice and policy and improve the health literacy of Canadians.

CIHR will prioritize investments that aim to deliver better outcomes, at lower costs, while improving the health care experiences of patients, families, and health practitioners.

